MEAT MARKET

"Eat, Drink, and be Merry!"

Around the festive board on X-mas day memories are molded for future years' reveries.

The Fatted Calf graced the feast centuries ago, in a parable we all know, but it wasn't an original idea.

Through all time, man has built traditions around a table of plenty.

Your Christmas dinner should be a feast of good things—and most important should be your meats.

Nations of the world each have their own tempting morsels. All except America—our own melting pot—where tastes and customs intermingle until selections include a varied choice unequalled.

Maybe a fowl—turkey, duck, goose, or chicken. Maybe a suckling pig—or the old English feast piece—"a boar's head."

We have made a special effort this year to supply you with choice cuts of meat—no matter what your taste may be. And the prices are reasonable.
